Mayors' Award of Distinction Awards Presentation Set Internationally Recognized Guest Speaker Dan Clark to Present Keynote Address

The Mayors' Award of Distinction presentation has been set for Sunday, April 25, 2010 at 2:00 PM in the Paramount Center for the Performing Arts. The award winners will be recognized in a special presentation program. The recipients will be presented with a special medal bestowed by Bristol's Mayors. This is the third year the awards have been presented to citizens of the area.

This year the guest speaker will be Dan Clark. Mr. Clark is internationally recognized as a New York Times best-selling author. He is the author of twenty of his own best-selling books on leadership, management, team building, humor, public speaking and personal development. He is also a primary contributing author to the "Chicken Soup For The Soul" series.

"Anyone who hasn't had the opportunity to hear Dan Clark speak should make an extra effort to come out and hear him. He is truly an outstanding speaker who delivers his message in not only an inspirational manner but a humorous one," said Terrie Talbert, Director of Community Relations for the City of Bristol Tennessee. "His message transcends gender, race and time, making him a speaker that everyone will enjoy," Talbert continued.

The event is open to the public and free of charge.
