Musical Legend Gordon Lightfoot to Appear in Bristol

On Saturday, August 14, 2010 at 10:00 AM tickets will go on sale for what some baby boomers consider a music legend, Gordon Lightfoot. All seats are reserved and may be ordered on-line, picked-up at the box office, or by phone. The concert, the first appearance of Lightfoot in the Tri-Cities, is scheduled for October 17, 2010 at the Viking Hall Civic Center. Doors will open at 7:00PM with Lightfoot taking the stage at 8:00 PM.

71-year old Lightfoot's voice has escaped the ravages of age. His voice is as strong and baritone-mellow as ever. His genre is a rare blend of folk, rock and country and is performed in the manner only he can bring to life. He came to prominence in the 1960's with chart songs such as "If You Could Read My Mind", "Rainy Day People", "Sundown", "The Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald" and many more.

To order tickets on line go to www.vikinghall.com; to order tickets by phone or to get more concert information call 423-764-0188 or come by the Viking Hall Box Office located at 1100 Edgemont Avenue in Bristol.
