State Street Farmers Market’s “Chef @ the Market” hosted by Troutdale Kitchens

Don’t miss this year’s first Chef @ the Market program. The presentation will begin promptly at 9:00 AM. Chef Mark Krueger of the Troutdale Kitchens will be hosting this week’s presentation. The program is designed to show those in attendance how to prepare new and interesting dishes made from produce available at the State Street Farmers market. The chefs allow for a tasting of the prepared dish after the presentation. Come out and be tutored by a renowned chef in the preparation of locally grown, fresh as the day produce available only at a local farmers market.

Come early to get your pick of the crops of the day, have a cup of coffee and listen to live music all before Chef Krueger takes the stage.

If you can’t make it to the market, check out the new and improved market website at www.statestreetfarmersmarket.com, to get this week’s Chef @ the Market recipe.

You can also check out BTN-TV Channel 16 to watch the Chef @ the Market program and see what produce is at the market this week.
