2nd Annual Doggie Swim at Haynesfield Pool Announced

Bristol's Parks and Recreation Department is announcing the 2nd Annual Doggie Swim at Haynesfield Pool located at 327 Sleepy Hollow Road in Bristol. The pool will be open to canines of all ages, makes and models from Tuesday, September 6, 2011 through Friday, September 9. Gates will open at 5:00 P.M. Your pet may swim until 7:30. On Saturday, September 10, 2011 bring your best four-legged friend to swim from Noon until 4:00 P.M.

Mike Musick, Supervisor of Recreation said, "Last year we tried the Doggie Swim to see if there was a real interest. Were we surprised, it was a tremendous success. Everyone, dogs and owners alike, seemed to have a great time."

Admission is only $3.00 per dog. There is no admission fee for people. There is a limit to two dogs per person.

At the end of the doggie swim the pool will be drained and prepared for winter in anticipation of the next swim season beginning in the spring.
