Bark Park Ribbon Cutting

What: Press Conference The City of Bristol Tennessee will be hosting a ribbon-cutting of the newest addition to its parks system, the Bark Park at Charlie Robinette Park. The new dog park is the first of its kind within the city.

When: Tuesday, November 1, 2011 at 4:00 P.M.

Where: Charlie Robinette Park, 111 Vance Drive, Bristol, Tennessee

Who: Jeff Broughton, City Manager
Terry Napier, Director Parks and Recreation

Why: The ribbon-cutting opens the doors to a leash-free environment for our four-legged friends. Even though it is cold outside, your best furry friend still needs to play! What better way to bond with your dog, keep up your exercise program and take in the beautiful views of the season from one of Bristol's newest parks.
