Fairmount Neighborhood Plan Meeting Scheduled

The City of Bristol has been conducting a neighborhood plan analysis in the Fairmount community since September 2010. The Department of Community Development staff members have been studying the neighborhood and working the citizens to evaluate the conditions of the area, as well as to include opinions of the residents in the Fairmount Neighborhood Plan. Three of four public meetings have been held to explain the study process and to collect the citizens' opinions. The fourth and final meeting will be held on Monday, June 27, 2011 at 6:00 P.M. in the Slater Center Auditorium located at 325 McDowell Street. The presentation will be a part of the Bristol Tennessee Municipal-Regional Planning commission's agenda. Staff will present the results of the study to the Planning Commissioners and the public for consideration. The public is invited and encouraged to attend.

Topics to be discussed include existing conditions in the neighborhood, citizen opinion and input, and the resulting goals and action items.
