The Best AC/DC Tribute Band, HELLS/BELLS closes out Bristol's Tribute Series

For 15 years and counting, HELLS/BELLS has been touring extensively, performing shows in every state of the U.S.A. and many countries throughout the world. The band salutes the driving force of AC/DC in a manner surpassed only by the real AC/DC. "HELLS/BELLS played for us last year as the closing act of the tribute series season and the response was over-whelming. We had fans call during the winter to make sure we were going to bring back this crazy and energetic band," said Darlene Cole, Venue Manager for the Community Relations Office which oversees the city's entertainment venues.

With the look and sound of AC/DC, and the antics of Angus Young, hear all the hits of both singers, Bon Scott and Brian Johnson. Come out to the Downtown Center located at 810 State Street to hear some of the best of rock and roll. The band will take the stage at 7PM on Thursday, September 6. As always there is no charge for the concert, plenty of seating will be available along with food and drink on site.

"This is the last of the tribute series for the season, and what a season it has been with crowds of 2500+ on some evenings. It is a way to spend a warm summer evening under the stars with family and friends," added Cole.
