30th Annual Country Christmas Craft Show set for Viking Hall Thanksgiving Weekend

The annual Country Christmas Craft show is set for this Thanksgiving weekend in Viking Hall Civic Center. This event has been the kick-off of the Christmas shopping season for the last 30 years.

The hours of the event for this year are Friday, November 23 and Saturday, November 24 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. and on Sunday, November 25 from 12 Noon to 5 p.m.

“The show will have everything Christmas including gifts for those people on your list from 8 to 80. There will be wooden reindeer made from sassafras logs, handmade teddy bears, hand-crafted jewelry, crepe vendors and other assorted holiday foods along with Christmas scented candles, lots of primitive works, hand-felted hats and snowmen up to 7 feet tall,” said Daisy Carroll, the craft show manager. “It is a great event to bring the whole family out to, it has all the sights and smells of the season and is a great way to spend an afternoon,” continued Carroll.

For more information contact the Viking Hall Box Office at 423-764-0188 or call Daisy Carroll at (423) 360-5809. More detailed information about the event can be found on their website, <http://www.countrychristmasshow.com>.
