Paper Windows Session Eight Winners Announced

Eight out of twelve sessions of the Paper Windows project have been completed. Twenty four pictures are now posted on the city website featuring 1st through 3rd place winners in each session. "It is amazing to see what people in our community find to shoot, some of the pictures are just unbelievable, the beauty captured in them," said Lisa Beckner, the project coordinator.

This session named "Falling for Bristol" was number eight in the series. The first place winner, Wallace Moura photographed a beautiful location on a tree lined trail. The photo features fall foliage at its finest and the photograph is titled appropriately, "The Fall Trail."

The photo winning 2nd place honors was photographed by Denise Beverly. Ms. Beverly's shot was unique and showed us a fun way to view falling leaves. The picture is titled "I Will Catch You."

The third place winner is titled "A Shadow in Time" and was photographed by Linda Leonard. The picture is a playful way to look at the fall season.

The next session in the series is titled, "Grateful" and entries are being accepted through December 21, 2012.
