14th Annual Heroes Ball set in Viking Hall

The City of Bristol hosts an event each year that brings out our local heroes to enjoy a little friendly competition. This year the Heroes Ball is going to take on a couple of new twists. The American Red Cross will be the beneficiary of this year's event proceeds. "The American Red Cross is a perfect fit for us. They partner with us throughout the year on fire scenes where families are left homeless and unsure that the families have a place to stay, food and hygiene items," said Asst. Chief Jack Spurgeon with Bristol Fire and Rescue.

Another change in the line-up is the teams. The Bristol Virginia Sherriff's Department will be playing the Bristol Fire and Rescue while the Bristol Tennessee Police Department will be going up against the Bristol Virginia Police Department.

For weeks prior to the game each of the four teams has the opportunity to practice on the home court at Viking Hall. The winning teams take the prized trophy back to their departments to be displayed for the year. MVP's are selected from the two games and these players are awarded an individual trophy.

The games will take place on Friday, March 21st at 7:00pm. The public is invited to attend. A $3 dollar donation is suggested at the door. Come out and cheer-on your favorite hero while helping those in need.
