An animal-less rodeo in Fairmount School parking lot

It is not the kind of rodeo where you have to worry about being thrown by some four legged animal, instead of a cowboy hat, you will be given a helmet and the good guys will be wearing black. It is that time of year again, the guys in black, otherwise known as the Bristol Tennessee Police Department, are gearing up for the annual Bike Rodeo.

This year the rodeo is set for Fairmount School in the Maryland Avenue parking lot. Kids K-6 are encouraged to bring their bikes out to the school and try out their riding skills on the cone courses.

Two bikes will be given away. Helmets will also be given out until the supply is depleted. Bike safety checks will be performed by the officers and simple repairs can be completed on-site. The rodeo will take place Saturday, May 3 from 9:00 AM to Noon.
