An Evening with CS Lewis at the Paramount Center for the Arts March 30, 2014

“An Evening with C.S. Lewis” is being presented by King University at the Paramount Center for the Arts on Sunday, March 30, 2014 at 3:00 PM. “An Evening with C.S. Lewis proves again and again to be an enthralling theatrical experience. Thousands have already discovered or rediscovered Lewis and the insights of a man whose collected works made him one of the literary giants of the 20th Century,” said Darlene Cole, Assistant Director of Community Relations for the City of Bristol. “British Actor, David Payne will take you through a great story. You won’t want to miss this once in a lifetime opportunity in Bristol.”

Lewis, best known for his classic children’s series – The Chronicles of Narnia first launched in 1950 with the publication of The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe, all seven books remain among today’s favorite children’s novels; three of which have been turned into block buster movies.

Tickets are available now at the Paramount Center for the Arts or online at www.ETIX.com or by phone at 423-274-8920. Tickets purchased for the original date of November 2, 2013 will be honored.

For more information on the event contact Darlene Cole, Venue Manager in the Department of Community Relations at 423-764-4171 or email dcollection@bristoltn.org.
