Country trailblazer Justin Moore to perform in Bristol

Country music trailblazer, Justin Moore will be gracing the stage of Viking Hall at 1100 Edgemont Ave., on Sunday evening, November 16, 2014 at 7:30PM. Tickets are on sale at the Viking Hall Box Office, on-line at etix.com and by phone at 423-764-0188. “They are selling fast,” said Angie Rutherford, Box Office Manager. “Justin appeals to all ages but especially the younger crowd. He is a singer some would consider off the beaten path, which makes him that much more appealing.”

Justin Moore’s always had a thing about doing it his way. Call it stubborn redneck mettle, a well-developed case of who I am or just the fierce commitment to blaze a trail inherent to people from his home of Poyen, Arkansas.

Moore is considered a little bit rowdy, a little bit sentimental and a whole lot of roughneck. While denting the country radio charts with three #1s in anything but big city “Small Town USA”, the sentimental side; “If Heaven Weren’t So Far Away”, and the fidelity pledge “Till My Last Day”. He continues with his new album “Off the Beaten Path” still racking up hit after hit.

Moore will be joined by Colt Ford, a country music rapper, musician and songwriter who has co-written such songs as “Dirt Road Anthem” and recorded Top 40 chart song “Back”, a duet with Jake Owen.
