From: Matt Austin, Chief of Police

Subject: Last Lap LLC, Temporary Beer Permit Renewal

The Police Department has reviewed the Last Lap LLC. beer permit renewal for compliance with the following requirements:

1. Zoning Compliance: The location of the beer establishment is compliant with zoning pursuant to Section 6-145(b) by being in a B-3 district.
2. Special Distance Separation:
Special Distance Separation is not applicable for this off-premises permit.
3. Criminal Checks: A local criminal background check of the owner(s) pursuant to Section 6-147(5) has been undertaken to verify that owners comply with the "good moral character" requirements and have not been convicted within the past ten years of violations of any laws or ordinances against manufacturing, selling, transporting, storing or possessing intoxicating liquor of alcoholic content in excess of five percent by weight, and have not been convicted of a felony within the past ten years.
4. Other Adverse Factors: There are no known factors to the Police Department associated with the proposed location that may have an adverse effect in consideration of the type and character of the neighborhood; the population density of the neighborhood; the proximity of residences, schools, parks, and playgrounds; the proximity of churches or other religious establishments; or any problem with law enforcement in the area; or any other factors which affect the public health, safety, or welfare.

A renewal fee of $100 will be given to the city at the beer board meeting for this permit.

Based on the foregoing, this applicant appears to meet the requirements to apply for a permit under the Beer Ordinance. Therefore, it is staff recommendation that the permit be considered, unless the Beer Board finds disqualifying grounds at the hearing on the application.
