Citizens Municipal Academy Deadline Nears

The City of Bristol Tennessee's Citizens Municipal Academy deadline is drawing to a close. Friday, January 15, 2010 is the last date citizens may apply for placement in this year's academy.

Classes will be held on consecutive Thursday evenings at 6:00 p.m. and will run from January 21 through February 25th. The six-week program will culminate at the March 2, 2010 City Council meeting when the participants will be awarded their graduation certificate and be publicly recognized.

Classes include discovering the Big Picture with City Manager Jeff Broughton and Finance Director Tara Musick. Other class topics will include Developing and Maintaining the Community, Public Infrastructure, Recreation and Leisure Service Opportunities and Public Safety –Police and Fire.

The program will provide participants with the knowledge necessary to better understand and support city efforts for the enrichment and development of the Bristol community.

There is no cost to participate in the academy. For more information go to www.bristoltn.org, click on the Resident tab, scroll down to Citizens Municipal Academy 2010 to read more about the program and complete the application on-line. The application may be submitted electronically or faxed to 423-764-3299 or mailed to P.O. Box 1189, Bristol, Tennessee 37621-1189.
